

ILO Side event 2nd December 2014

EU Pavilion- COP 20- Lima (Peru)

Title: Climate Change and Employment

Description: Dialogue between policy makers, practitioners and civil society representatives about impacts of climate change on labour and ways in which climate change is being addressed from a labour perspective. Experiences from different countries and regions will be presented on green jobs assessment in low-carbon sectors providing skills in low-carbon and carbon resilient sectors, mainstreaming climate change into social protection programmes and improving quality of green jobs.

Time: 18.00-20.00

Venue: EU Pavillion

Programme and Speakers

18:00-18.10

Welcome -Moustapha Kamal Gueye, ILO Green Jobs Programme.

18:10-18:50

Impacts of climate change on labour: Ana Belén Sánchez, Green Jobs Consultant

ILO experiences on how countries are addressing labour impacts of climate change, Moustapha Kamal Gueye, ILO Green Jobs Programme.

18:50 - 19:00 Q&A

19:00-20:00

Panel discussion: How to mainstream Decent Work into Climate Change policy at global and national level?

Invited Speakers:

- Mr. Miguel Antonio Rodriguez Zevallos, PAGE Coordinator, Peru
- Mr. Paul Watkinson, Head French Delegation to the UNFCCC
- Mr. Omar Ramirez Tejada, National Council for Climate Change, Dominican Republic
- Ms. Anabella Rosemberg, International Trade Union Confederation, ITUC
- Ms. Norinne Kennedy, Employers' perspective (invited)

- 20:00 Closure