

Reports on Credentials

Brief report presented by the Chairperson of the Governing Body of the International Labour Office on the credentials of the delegates and advisers to the 99th Session of the International Labour Conference (Geneva, 1 June 2010)

1. The composition of each delegation and the procedure for appointing delegates and advisers to sessions of the International Labour Conference are governed by article 3 of the Constitution of the International Labour Organization.
2. In accordance with paragraphs 8 and 9 of article 3 of the Constitution, it is for the governments to communicate the nominations to the International Labour Office. The Conference examines these nominations and decides, in the case of dispute, whether delegates and advisers have been nominated in accordance with this article of the Constitution.
3. The Conference exercises this power through the Credentials Committee in accordance with the procedure laid down in articles 5 and 26 to 26quater of its Standing Orders.
4. By virtue of paragraph 2 of article 26 of the Standing Orders of the Conference: “A brief report upon these credentials shall be drawn up by the Chairperson of the Governing Body. It shall, with the credentials, be made available for inspection on the day before the opening of the session of the Conference and shall be published on the day of the opening of the session.”
5. The present report serves to provisionally fix the quorum necessary to give validity to the votes taken, in accordance with paragraph 1(2) of article 20 of the Standing Orders of the Conference.
6. The attached table, which was established on Tuesday, 1 June 2010, at 2.30 p.m., shows the numerical composition of the delegations to the Conference based on the credentials provided. In this regard, it should be noted that the persons who have been nominated both as substitute delegates and as advisers have been included in the table among the advisers.
7. To date, 163 member States have communicated the names of the members of their delegations. Ninety-nine countries (three less than last year) deposited their credentials on or before 18 May 2010, thus meeting the 15-day deadline before the date fixed for the opening of the Conference, in compliance with paragraph 1 of article 26 of the Standing

Orders of the Conference. The First Provisional List of Delegations, which appears on the opening day of the Conference, contains the names of the accredited participants received as of Tuesday, 1 June 2010.

8. Furthermore, while the Conference and the Credentials Committee have previously insisted on the obligation which article 3 of the Constitution imposes on governments requiring them to send complete delegations to the Conference, two member States (Libyan Arab Jamahiriya and Uzbekistan) have accredited a delegation exclusively composed of Government delegates. In addition, one member State (Myanmar) has appointed an Employers' delegate but no Workers' delegate, while two member States (Bosnia and Herzegovina and Iraq) have appointed a Workers' delegate but no Employers' delegate.
9. Forty-three governments (three less than last year) have not confirmed that they would cover their delegates' and advisers' travel and subsistence expenses, in accordance with paragraph 2(a) of article 13 of the Constitution. In this regard, in order to ensure greater clarity in establishing the credentials, it is advisable that governments use the form enclosed with the letter of convocation to the Conference which the Office addresses every year to member States or the *On-line Credentials*¹ application made available by the Office.
10. Finally, I urge all delegates and advisers to register in person at the Registration Desk that is located at the Pavilion, which is near the ILO building, since the daily quorum is calculated on the basis of the number of delegates actually registered.

Composition of the Conference and quorum

11. At present 323 Government delegates, 159 Employers' delegates and 160 Workers' delegates – a total of 642 delegates – are accredited to the Conference.
12. There are, in addition, 1,111 Government advisers, 464 Employers' advisers and 680 Workers' advisers – a total of 2,255 advisers.
13. A total of 2,897 delegates and advisers have been nominated to take part in the work of the Conference in conformity with the provisions of the Constitution of the Organization.
14. Ten member States accredited to the Conference are in arrears in their financial contributions to the Organization under the terms of article 13, paragraph 4, of the Constitution and therefore may not, at present, participate in the voting in the Conference or its committees. These are: Burundi, Cape Verde, Comoros, Djibouti, Gambia, Guinea-Bissau, Sao Tome and Principe, Somalia, Ukraine and Uzbekistan. Therefore, 38 delegates are not taken into account in calculating the quorum, nor are three delegates who, in accordance with article 4, paragraph 2, of the Constitution, cannot vote owing to the incomplete nature of their respective delegations (see paragraph 8 above).

15. In conformity with article 17 of the Constitution of the Organization and article 20 of the Standing Orders of the Conference, the necessary quorum to give a vote validity is provisionally 301.²

Observers

16. At present, one observers' delegation has been accredited to the Conference (the Holy See).

Liberation movement and organizations invited

17. The Conference is also attended by:

- a tripartite delegation from Palestine, as a liberation movement invited in conformity with article 2, paragraph 3(k), of the Standing Orders of the Conference;
- representatives of the United Nations and some of its bodies, invited by virtue of Article II, paragraph 1 – relating to reciprocal representation – of the Agreement between the United Nations and the International Labour Organization, which came into effect on 14 December 1946;
- representatives of other official international organizations, invited in conformity with article 2, paragraph 3(b), of the Standing Orders of the Conference;
- representatives of non-governmental international organizations with which consultative relations have been established, invited in conformity with article 2, paragraph 3(j), of the Standing Orders of the Conference; and
- representatives of other non-governmental international organizations also invited in conformity with article 2, paragraph 3(j), of the Standing Orders of the Conference.

18. A list of these representatives is appended to the list of delegations published as a supplement to the Provisional Record of the Conference.

Geneva, 1 June 2010.
